14 AMENDED SCHEDULING ORDER

15 A case management conference was held on April 4, 2023. Having considered the parties' proposals, see Dkt. No. 180, the Court RESETS the following deadlines pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 16 and Civil Local Rule 16-10:

Event	Deadline
Deadline for Completion of Document Production	May 12, 2023
Plaintiffs' Deadline to File Motion for Class Certification (and disclose class expert(s))	July 7, 2023
Defendant's Deadline to Respond to Motion for Class Certification (and disclosure of class rebuttal expert(s))	September 5, 2023
Plaintiff's Deadline to Reply In Support of Class Certification Motion and Parties' Responses to Any Daubert Challenges	October 17, 2023

1 These dates may only be altered by order of the Court and only upon a showing of good
2 cause. The parties are directed to review and comply with this Court's standing orders. In light of 3 the discussion during the case management conference and the parties' joint submission regarding
4 the class certification briefing schedule, the Court has substantial concerns with the substance and
5 tenor of the parties' discovery disagreements. The parties are advised that the May 12 deadline is 6 not for "substantial completion of document production," but rather the deadline to complete all
7 document production. The Court further stresses that additional discovery disputes will not
8 constitute good cause for extending the case schedule. The parties must promptly discuss any 9 such disputes, expeditiously determine whether any remain that cannot be resolved through the 10 exercise of diligence, reasonableness, proportionality and good faith, then present any such
11 narrowed disputes to the Magistrate Judge to allow for resolution and production by the deadline.
12 This terminates Dkt. Nos. 175 and 180.

13 IT IS SO ORDERED.
